

WEST COAST KHOISAN CULTURAL VILLAGE

1 DAY WEST COAST CULTURAL AND WINE TASTING (OR PART OF MULTI-DAY) TOUR

An unforgettable visit to the Khoisan cultural village in the scenic West Coast

The #Khomani are the last surviving indigenous San community in South Africa and their living cultural landscape is an important aspect of our national culture. The San of Southern Africa have left a unique artistic tradition and archaeological record throughout the sub-continent. A visit to the Kalahari Desert provides a sense of freedom that is hard to find in many other parts of the world.

IKhwa ttu, the San Education and Culture Centre, 70 km north-west of Cape Town offers you the unique experience of being introduced to the world of the descendants of the first indigenous people of southern Africa.

The San themselves will take you on a journey into their history, traditional knowledge, skills, languages, customs and current affairs. This enjoyable and eye-opening event will stay with you for a long time.

Darling -Darling is the heartbeat of the West Coast region. The little village lies tucked away between hills of vineyards and golden wheat fields. Here you can still expect to see a horseman cantering through the streets on a Saturday afternoon. A gaggle of geese might waddle into a neighbour's garden to forage.

'Evita se Perron' is a lively place to meet, eat, drink and talk. A stress-free zone, where humour and enjoyment are the primary aims. It is from here that Mrs Evita Bezuidenhout, the most famous white woman in South Africa, keeps an eye on the progress of democracy. She is the hostess and entertains in her own inimitable style.

Since its inception, the Darling wine route has grown immensely in popularity. It's less than an hour's drive from Cape Town and its warmth and hospitality coupled with wines of tremendous quality and value has placed it on the list of routes to visit when visiting the Cape. Cloof, Groote Post, Darling Cellars, Ormonde and Tukululu offer wine tastings and many also provide scrumptious meals.
